

My Child has been diagnosed with Usher Syndrome..... Where can I look for more information?

- Register with the COALITION FOR USHER SYNDROME RESEARCH. They will help you keep track of research – and update you with information on Usher Syndrome: <http://www.usher-syndrome.org>
- Find out if your child could get a cochlear implant
- Find out if your child might become part of research studies on Retinitis Pigmentosa (e.g. Dr. Weleber's work at Oregon Health Science University)
